

ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Richmond, September 7, 1863.

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 119. }

I. All officers and agents of the Quartermaster's, Commissary and Conscription departments will render all assistance in their power in collecting arms abandoned or left by stragglers in the hands of citizens.

II. Arms thus collected will be turned over to the nearest ordnance officer, who will receipt for the same, and, upon proper vouchers, pay any reasonable expense actually incurred for transportation.

III. "Medical inspectors will be recommended by the Surgeon General, and being approved, will be announced in orders from this office."

IV. As heretofore required in General Orders, No. 64, of 1862, respecting the hides of beeves, commissaries of subsistence in the field and at depots will transfer the hides of all slaughtered sheep to officers of the Quartermaster's department, who will receive and preserve them to be tanned.

By order.

S. COOPER,
Adjutant and Inspector General.
